Celebrating 65 Years

2025

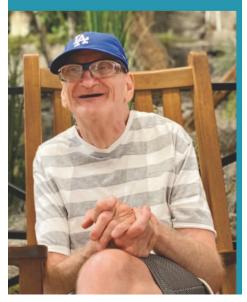

Skills is committed to providing choices that promote independence and enhance all aspects of the lives of people who need our support at home, at work, and in the community.

We offer a wide variety of services to those living with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

WHO WE ARE

Our guiding principal as an organization is putting people first. All of the services we provide are person-centered, meaning we take time to learn what's important to and for each person we support, and then figure out how we can help them pursue their interests and reach their goals while remaining healthy, happy, and safe.

WHAT WE DO

Adult Day Programs

Day Program attendees make friends, build connections in their communities, and participate in a variety of activities designed to help them pursue their individual interests and goals.

Behavior Support Services

Behavior Support Services include assessment, training, and intervention to help people with intellectual and developmental disabilities who experience challenging and complex behaviors.

Community Homes

Skills supports people up to 24 hours a day in homes throughout central PA. Our staff provide personal and medical care and ensure that the people they support are healthy, happy, and safe.

Employment Services

Our Employment Services program can support people seeking employment at any step in the process, from resume building to job coaching.

In-Home and Community Supports

Our IHCS staff assist people with intellectual and developmental disabilities in acquiring, maintaining, and improving the skills necessary to live more independently.

Lifesharing

Lifesharing provides people with disabilities with an opportunity to live as part of a family, in a community of their choice. Families, couples, or individuals open their homes and provide security, support, guidance, and love.

Vocational Training Programs (VTs)

At VTs, the people we support earn money, socialize, and learn new job skills while working on manufacturing, assembly, and packaging projects for area businesses.
